St. James's, May 8.

The following Address of the Proprietors of Land of the County of Orkney, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Proprietors of Land, of the County of Orkney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, Proprietors of Land in the County of Orkney, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Hearts full of the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we unfeignedly partake of the Satisfaction so general among your Majesty's affectionate Subjects, on Account of the Removal of your late Ministry, and of the Rejection of the East India Bill, which we conceived to be fraught with the most alarming Consequences, tending to strip Property of its best Securities, and Liberty of its very Existence among us; making a daring Step towards the Establishment of a hateful Aristocracy, on the Ruins of that excellent Constitution, which is the highest Boast and greatest Blessing of Britons; and that we entertain a just Abhorrence of every factious Measure that is calculated for, or has a Tendency to unhinge the happy Arrangement of its Parts.

Although from some Peculiarities of Condition in which your Majesty's Subjects of this Country are placed, we do not enjoy the full Measure of Security in our Property, which happily belongs to the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects; yet we too highly prize the Share of those we possess, to hesitate in concurring in every necessary Measure for repelling Encroachments on the British Constitution, and on your Majesty's Prerogative, as making an essential Part thereof.

We beg Leave also to join the publick Voice of Approbation, with which your Majesty's gracious Choice of New Ministers has been followed, and to express our full Confidence in them.

That your Majesty's Life may be prolonged as an inestimable Blessing to a free and happy People, is the fervent Prayer of your loyal Subjects.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment by our Præses, at Kirkwall, the 7th Day of April, 1784.

Robert Balkie.
